Payment is due by enrolment (11 September) for the first term's fees and for subsequent terms on the first date of each term.

If you are unable to meet the deadline for fees you must see a member of staff in the Finance Department before the start of the relevant term. If the problem is likely to be temporary, an interest charge equating to the prevailing base rate will usually be levied. However, failure to report to the Finance Department will invoke an automatic late payment penalty of £10 per week.
